$500,000 FOR ADVERTISING

Governor Caldwell, in his first conference with a 15-member advisory committee named to map a state-financed advertising program for submission to the legislature, suggested the tentative figure of $500,000 as the sum that could be profitably spent the first year in a state program.

"This sum is neither too large nor is it too small. Careful planning rather than a large sum of money is what is needed for the first year—maybe for two or three years. If the state goes into the business of advertising its attractions, resources and possibilities and on a sound basis, we are confident the returns will be so gratifying that there would be few if any dissenting voices when the time comes to step up the expenditure to what ever figure such a program as will be developed demands.

"Florida has advanced to where it is today because of advertising—paid for in large part by private enterprise and individuals. We can advance much further and more rapidly if an enlarged advertising program is financed from both the public and private purse.

"While the governor, in addition to throwing out the half million dollar budget proposal, offered some other good suggestions which undoubtedly will be acted upon by the committee, we think that attention should be directed to one expression of Mr. Caldwell's in particular. It is this, that "anything that advertises Florida also advertises Miami Beach," as he noted that cities and industries might be willing to include a few lines about the state in their ads.

"We want to re-phrase the governor's thought to make it read: "Anything that advertises Miami Beach also advertises Florida."

"One of the difficulties in getting legislative approval for a state financed advertising program has always been that those sections of the state which do not cater to tourists have objected to seeing the state's tax dollars go for something which they THINK they have no immediate interest. But they do have an immediate interest—and a vital one.

"The growth of Miami Beach as a tourist center—or any other resort city in the state—has created the greatest potential market for Florida products in the nation. This growth has created new tax values and swelled the revenue flowing into the state treasury, to relieve the burden on less populous sections where values are not so high. We believe the people of Dade county claim that one-eighth of state taxes are collected in that county. What made those taxes? The tourist dollars.

"Senator Ernest Graham, of Dade county who was here the other day to buy the championed stock at the Southeastern Fat Stock Show and Sale, and some blooded calves for his own stock ranch, pointed out that Miami offers the stock raiser of Florida the greatest cattle market in the country, if they would but take advantage of it.

"The state will, of course, invest in a well rounded advertising program, but at the outset Floridians should get away from the hallucination that money spent to bring tourists into the state does not benefit a backwoods county in any part of the state, because it does—tremendously.

"Another thought that should be kept in mind as we go forward planning for state advertising is that it will require new revenue. Governor Caldwell has made that plain, and it is well that he has. Let's not attempt to pinch a measly sum out of the general revenue fund for an inadequate advertising program. We should meet the issue squarely, provide a just tax for raising the needed half million, and start the advertising program on a sound basis.

"We believe that the governor's committee will submit such a program." —Ocala Star-Banner.

A MILLION TO ADVERTISE FLORIDA

"Too much emphasis cannot be given to the plan to create a Florida advertising commission which would be authorized to spend a million dollars a year advertising the merits of this versatile peninsula.

A House committee appointed by Governor Caldwell has submitted a comprehensive recommendation and a measure has been drawn for consideration by legislators during the forthcoming session.

"A new tax scheme has been found for support of the program. It is far reaching and essential. It would coordinate the promotional agencies of the state and tell the remainder of the nation with vigorous emphasis about Florida's many assets and of the vast potentialities here.

"The program has not been impetuously conceived and promulgated. It has been carefully thought out. It would benefit the entire state, bringing in many new residents, new enterprise and new money. It provides for systematic and thorough telling of the story of present-day Florida. That story told as the governor's advertising committee has recommended would set Florida well on the way to matching the luster of California's promotional program.

"We believe every progressive member of the legislature will look with favor on the measure which the committee has proposed. Now is the time to set in motion such large-scale advertising program for Florida. Neither Florida cities nor the state can afford to be penny-wise and pound-foolish in the matter of advertising.

A unit of advertising program for Florida would bring tremendous and lasting benefits." —The Lakeland Ledger.

Short Cuts to Better Gardens

Many a Victory Gardener has learned a lot from experience in the past three years. Various knacks, devices, and methods have been found helpful in making vegetable and flower growing easier, more efficient, and more enjoyable. Here are a few of them picked up here and there. There's the quick trick of making furrows for very small seeds by laying the rake handle flat on the ground parallel to other rows and pressing it lightly into the soil. The soil, of course, must be of fine texture and well prepared. The shallow depression left by the handle is just the right depth for lettuce, carrots and other tiny vegetable and flower seeds which should not be planted more than a quarter-inch deep. The row can then be specially covered by gently raking a thin layer of soil over it and tamping it down.

Mixing small seeds with a handful of sand or fine soil before sowing is a good idea. This method keeps the seed from blowing around and also from being sown too thickly.

Do you suspect the presence of that crafty nemesis, the cutworm, in your garden plot? The pest frequently hides in the soil and slips off young plants at the base during the night while you sleep. Tomato and pepper plants are often victims as well as other transplanted seedlings. To combat this enemy, a paper "collar" is a handy device. Cut a strip of flexible cardboard Legion and the Florida Veterans for the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Al Dunham had to suspend publication of his Arcadia Independent for lack of help. He has two linotypes and nobody to run 'em.

This is "cow country" and you find plenty of these picturesquely hatted in evidence. The introduction of the tick have done wonders for the cattle business and Florida today can hold her own with any section when it comes to producing Grade-A meat.

No one knows, of course, how many American and British fliers received their primary training at Carlsbad and Arcadia trainees the Eddle Aeronautical Corporation have maintained schools since Pearl Harbor, but it runs into thousands and Arcadia trained boys have played a mighty big part in all war theatres.

While in Ft. Myers, I dropped by for a visit with Edith and Mrs. Robert C. Brown, who succeeded the late George Hosmer as publisher of the Southwest Floridian. Found them charming folks who are doing a mighty creditable job, carrying on where George left off.

At the hotel, I met a friend who had just received a letter from a boy overseas that was written on the letterhead of the "Hotel Pax Hall." Somewhere in Germany. Advantages the establishment offered were listed on the letterhead as follows: "Air Conditioned Bedrooms and Latrine, Pinet Box Lunches, Kitchens, Fresh Water Daily, (not standing only). The Finest Club in the Country, for Boys and Long Walks. Bring your Gun, Good Hunting, Ladies Welcome." Owner and manager was listed as Lt. William B. Wood.

Had dinner at the Gondola Inn, which proved a pleasant place to spend a few hours if you're not too hungry or in much of a hurry. The manager told me that help was almost impossible to get. The girl who finally waited on us, we learned, was living at a local hotel and paying $3-a-day for a room.

Swinging back up State, I stopped for a visit with Senator William King at Zolfo Springs, who was debouncing the fact that "he hadn't been able to find a girl in the county who was interested in going to Tallahassee as an attaché at $8 a day. Allen Segree Has Birthday Party

Allen Segree celebrated his eighth birthday anniversary at a party given by his mother, Mrs. Roy Segree, at her home on East Main Street Saturday afternoon. Allen's schoolmates were guests. After playing some games and receiving refreshments of punch and cake, the boys trooped off to the Prince Theatre to see one of those wild and wonderful Westerns that Malcolm Millar manages to pull out of his hat every Saturday afternoon. After the show, the kids were again in need of refreshments, so back to the Segree home for some food that that good birthday cake and the time to go with it—ice cream!

Mrs. R. J. Schroeder's Victory Sunday School Class held a business meeting at the home of Mrs. Becky Starling Wednesday night to continue a discussion of plans for installing a pie organ in the Pahokee Methodist Church as a memorial to the men and women of the church serving in the armed forces.

The class voted to assume the responsibility of raising a major portion of the funds necessary for the purchase of the organ, this money to be raised both through individual pledges and sponsorship of financial projects by the class. AIRACOBAS TESTED ON SINCLAIR PENNSYLVANIA MOTOR OIL

When Bell Airacobras, deadly pursuit planes, are given the works on test flights their 1150 horsepower Allison engines are kept safely lubricated with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil—the same quality Sinclair Pennsylvania sold by your nearby Sinclair Dealer.

Now that your car must last longer, keep it safely lubricated with the same quality oil that protects the Airacobras' engine at 895 m.p.h. Have your Sinclair Dealer drain and refill your crankcase with Sinclair Pennsylvania Motor Oil every 1,000 miles. It lasts so long it saves money as well as your engine.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

by Russell Kay

To borrow a gag line from the guy on the radio, "Does your Florida look different, lately?" My answer is, It does. It doesn't matter in what direction you travel, you find changes. Areas you remembered as undeveloped backwoods are now military reservations, cities in themselves, other areas, long unused are now under cultivation. Ft. Myers was all hostile and hostile. It was not as if you were passing "No vacancy" signs.

While in Ft. Myers, I dropped by for a visit with Edith and Mrs. Robert C. Brown, who succeeded the late George Hosmer as publisher of the Southwest Floridian. Found them charming folks who are doing a mighty creditable job, carrying on where George left off.

Cinematic Chatter

By Malcolm Millar

The "Little Lady of the Theatre," Miss Ethel Barrymore, comes into the Prince Theatre for the two day run, Sunday-Monday, this week-end with Cary Grant as her leading man and Barry Fitzgerald, June Duprez and Jane Wyatt lending the finest support in one of the best and most dramatic pictures that this troupe of Hollywood's "A's" have ever presented on the screen, "None But the Lonely Heart."

In this picture Miss Ethel does some of her finest pieces of work with Cary and Barry and the rest of the boys and girls who assist this great actress in presenting a picture that you will always remember as one of the best you ever saw.

"None But the Lonely Heart" is a love story. The story of a man who loves several women and finds them all... He wants them all, but at the same time wants to remain free. It is a very novel story and under the direction of Clifford Odets, a little on the new side for Hollywood, this picture is destined to be one of the outstanding pictures of the year. For the Tuesday-Wednesday offering I find "None But the Lonely Heart" which does not bear too much of an enticing title. But don't let the title fool you it is a very interesting story.

On the same program comes "Pardon My Rhythm" which stars and features, Gloria Jean, Walter Catlett, Evelyn Ankers, Marjorie Weaver, Patrice Knowles, Mel Tormé and Patry O'Connor and Bob Crosby and His Band.

This one will feature a very nice little story with a good sprinkling of musical ditties and more fine comedy, and I'm sure everyone will enjoy the antics of the "skin busters" and "rug cutters" of this picture. So get in "the groove" and "truck it on."

down" to your cinema on this night.

Thursday-Friday has the famous "National Boogie Woogie" with a huge cast of air favorites, headed by Jean Heather, Charles Quigley, Robert Benchley, Mabel Paige and the "National Barn Dance" troupe. Pat Buttrum, Joe Kelly, Lyle Belle and Scotty, The Dinning Sisters, The Hoosier Hot Shots and Arlie, The Arkansaw Woodchopper.

I don't need to tell you this will be one of the greatest collections of hits built music and songs ever placed into one picture, with enough of that hillbilly humor to please you all in stitches.

On the same program comes one of the most heart tugging stories that you have ever sat through under the title "My Pal Wolf" which stars a new kid on the screen, Sharyn Moffett, and the doc who very good job of the business she has in hand, which concerns "Grey Shadow" a very clever canine actor, in the lead with her are Jill Fennell, Una O'Connor, George Cleveland, Charles Arnt and Claire Carleton. I know you are going to enjoy this one.

Saturday Comes George O'Brien and Jim Newell in "Boys of Ravenna" which, as you know, is a Western story, well acted and with an expert cast of cowhands to pull it over.

By the way, as we well get ready for the "7th War Loan Drive", which wants about 20 million more dollars from Florida than in any previous drive during this or any other war, We'll make it... I'll Bet Ya'.

See you at the movies—Mal.

"AND THAT'S NOT ALL"

Somewhere in the deep recesses of God's council chambers a man of God stands with the Father and has revealed unto the inhabitants of a people, God is saying unto him that these inquiries have not been unseen by the Heavenly host. He tells him that these inquiries will not continue forever: God says that surely the earth will not go on unpunished because of the sins of men, the very consequence of their doing. The man of God trembles at the justice to come... but wait—God gives hope for the offenders. God will forgive more than justice; He gives mercy.

And six new friends we have a picture of ourselves. Sinners we are, offenders we are, apart from God we are—but in all our tragic state there is hope! God has spoken! Why should we not believe? We would wonder how the Christ could come out of Israel, but He did! We would wonder how a Paul could be of Christ, but he was! We would wonder how we can be like unto them, but we may! It's not that we can, but that we dare! In all our sin and transgression the hope of salvation is ours... if we will only believe, call upon God, and put away sin from our lives. Not unlike Jerusalem are we with all our abomination, yet God sent prophets of light to it. Friends, we don't just have prospects of light, we have the light! Oh, that we may let that light shine into our hearts and from our countenance, and accept the mercies of God that pass all human understanding.

The pastor of the Canal Point Baptist Church shall preach Sunday morning at the eleven o'clock service from the eighth chapter of Ezekiel. We invite all of you to come if you have no other church affiliation. Come with us to our Sunday School at ten and plan to stay through the preaching service. "And that's not all" is a sermon we can use during these times. We have not simply sinned once, not just twice, but often and again and again.

Florida Steers Parade For Tourists

MIAMI, March 15. — (FNS) — A pair of Florida steers, with a combined weight of 2406 pounds, will be grazing powerfully in Miami's flower-bordered Bayfront this week-end before the start of the thousands of steak-hungry tourists and residents.

The champion of the lordly pair, a pure-bred Aberdeen-Angus, black, tips the scales at 1339 pounds, even allowing three per cent for shrinkage. He was raised from a calf by a six 18-year old 4-H club member, Miss Jeanette Zetrouer of Micanopy, Florida. The steer's name is Grand Champion and he lived up to it by winning six blue ribbons, and by bringing 80 cents a pound for each of his 1339 pounds at the Ocala Cattle auction.

Together with a pure white steer, named White Duke and weighing a mere 1667 pounds, the night-bled Grand Champion was purchased as beef cattle for the Florida Margaret Ann Stores by J. G. Dorris, and S. C. Beasley, of Lakeland.

Exhibition of the two cattle in Bayfront Park is a public service feature designed to stimulate cattle-raising in Florida by presenting incontrovertible proof that Florida can produce as fine beef cattle as any section in the country. The Miami exhibit was arranged by Col. Robert Penland, chairman of the board with the cooperation of J. G. Dorris and S. C. Beasley.

The steers were pastured here at the dairy farm of former Senator Ernest R. Graham, who raises pure Angus cattle himself.

Lodwick Returns From Battle Areas

LAKELAND, March 15. — (FNS) — Albert I. Lodwick, president of the Lodwick School of Aerodynamics, who has the assumed rank of brigadier general, is back in the United States from his second special mission for the war department, having just arrived in New York City.

News of his arrival was received here today by Mrs. Lodwick. She said her husband probably would return to Lakeland within a week or ten days. She will leave Thursday to join him. Lodwick left Lakeland last Nov. 16. He has been in England, the Mediterranean area, Greece, Italy, Belgium, Holland, France, all of occupied Germany, Corsica and Albania on this special mission.

On his first mission he was out of the country for almost six months and flew some 54,000 miles and visited thirty-nine nations.

During the mission just completed, he was with the 8th and 9th air forces in the European theatre and the 12th in the Mediterranean. He also was with all tactical air forces at the various battlefronts in these various areas, and spent considerable time in

They Live on the Fat of the Land!

Don't throw that waste cooking fat away! Save every bit of it! Waste fat helps make medicine and munitions for the Victory drive, helps save American lives.

Glycerine from waste fat is essential to the manufacture of dynamite, cordite, and nitroglycerine. It's used for depth charges, gun recoil mechanisms, steering gear for ships, pumps, compasses, and hydraulic equipment—Distilled glycerine is an ingredient of healing ointments and numerous salves.

More than a billion pounds of kitchen fats and greases are wasted each year in America, enough to provide one hundred million pounds of glycerine — or eight times more than we are using now.

Every household can save at least one pound of waste fat a month — and one pound will provide enough glycerine to make 1.3 pounds of gunpowder!
